Subject: PG&E: Comment on 60% design extended until 8/8/2013, RFI/RI Vol 1 Addendum until 9/9/2013

Greetings,

On May 28, 2013, the Fort Mojave Indian Tribe requested an extension for the review of the 60% design document. The additional time is needed for consultation and tribal deliberation. DOI and DTSC granted the extension requested on June 18, 2013 and June 21, 2013 respectively. As a result, the comment period for the 60% design is now extended to August 8, 2013.

Furthermore, as previously agreed, the review of the Volume 1 RFI/RI Addendum due date was specified to be 30 days from the completion of the 60% design review. Therefore, DTSC is extending that review due date to Monday, September 9, 2013 instead of September 7, which is a Saturday.

If you have any questions regarding these extensions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Aaron Yue
